MHS LOG 2007
Volume 82

Dear Ms. Doherty and Mr. Mirasolo.

Entering these halls as freshmen, we were all unsure about what the next four years had in store for us. As we adapted to the chaos of high school, it was your familiar faces among a sea of new ones that helped us settle in. Our class is filled with so many unique individuals, and it has been your devotion that brought us together to accomplish great things. We have left our mark on Melrose High School by revolutionizing slush, winning spirit week TWICE, creating the Black and White Affair, and even hosting the first successful Fuddrucker's Night. Your support throughout these years has helped us create what we feel is a pretty impressive class. Not only have you instilled in us tremendous pride in our school, but you have also taught us to appreciate and respect one another. Even though we were faced with obstacles, we were able to overcome them together. We beat the odds, and, by doing so we have set new standards for senior classes to come. Thank you for all of your support and your endless dedication. Even with your hectic schedules, teaching, attending graduate school and juggling many other responsibilities, you have always been there for us. There isn't anyone else we would rather have had guide us through these past four years.

We couldn't have made it without you!

The Class of 2007

RULES OF PLAY

Contents:

- 1 School
- 48 Hours of community service
- 24 Course credits
- 1 Helpful guidance counselor
- 2 Dedicated advisors
- 100's of teachers, coaches and administrators
- 1 AMAZING SENIOR CLASS

Object:

To make it through four years of non-stop tests, lectures, and papers in order to reach graduation. Along the way enjoy pep rallies, proms, and sporting events while creating everlasting friendships.

Game Play:

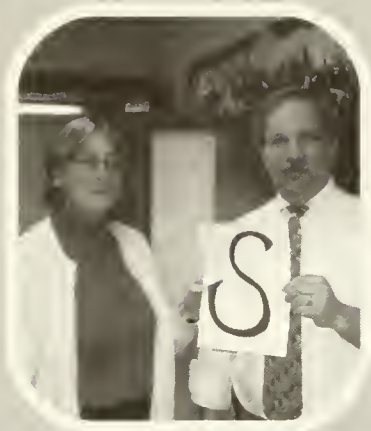

During the past four years, we have learned the rules of life and become better players of the game. Through every challenge we faced, we always found a way to make it to the next level. Choose your cards wisely, seize every opportunity given to you, and don't ever regret skipping a turn. Whatever way the dice may roll, you owe it to yourself to make the most of it. From start to finish, we are proud of all of our class' accomplishments. We should consider our graduation one of many victories in the game of life. Congratulations Class of 2007, and always remember, NEVER stop playing the game.

Winning the Game:

The player with the diploma wins the game!

Partying is ill, and I do it just about everyday. I live in NC rite now but only for school for 2 years. Represent Boston 4 life. Snowboarding is my life, has been now for 12 years. Cars are also my life. I can fix just about n e thing wrong, and I know them inside and out. I go to Johnson and Wales and I'm a culinary student- but probably won't be a chef, undecided. Last thing, I love my past. Wouldnt change it a bit. I gave up some things, and never kicked myself about it. Im starting fresh, and this time doing it rite.

What can I say? This class has experienced a lot over its 4 years. We have seen a war unfold. We've seen the Sox win the World Series. We've seen our freedoms and privileges disappear. I could use this time to write down all my friends' initials, but the truth is I'm just glad that it's all over.

The class of 2007 left their nerves behind and kept the night alive at the first dance of their high school years. Although Melrose is no Laguna Beach, the memories that were made surpass their drama.

Season Day

The Seniors put on their snowsuits to show their spirit on season day. As the North Pole was set in the corner and Mt. Senior displayed, a winter wonderland was created. James Bond would have been proud to see the 007 t-shirts take over the school. No one will ever forget the two-time winners of spirit week 2007...Class of...2007.

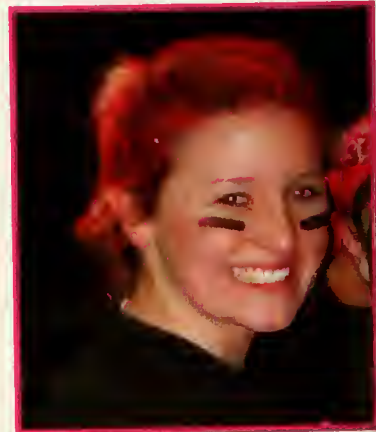

Color Day

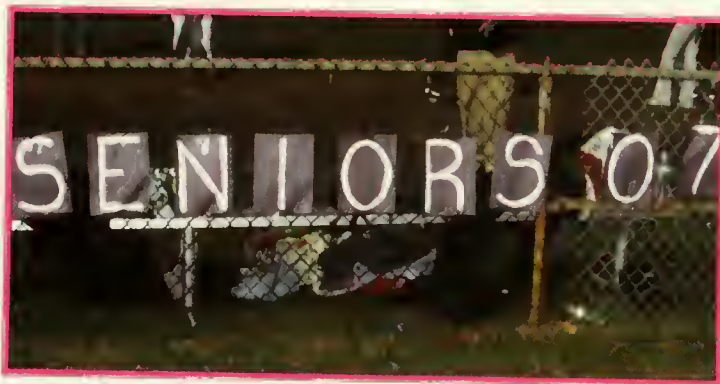

Powder Puff Game

The 2006 Powderpuff game was one to be remembered. . In black and pink the seniors were a force to be reckoned with. In the bitter cold the cheering fans helped the Class of 2007 dominate in overtime and win the title of CHAMPIONS!

November 20, 2006

Remember When...

You got your license.

We had four days off from school because it was underwater.

You went to e-camp.

You got your braces off.

Andy Sateriale had his pants on backwards.

The glass was half full, but you didn't have to drink it.

You had your first crush.

We listened to "Proud To Be An American"... everyday.

The seniors had privileges.

HARVARD COLLEGE Office of Admissions and Financial Aid

December 15, 2006

Ms. Marissa Ann Babin
2 Grandview Ave
Melrose, MA 02176-5610

Dear Ms. Babin,

I am delighted to inform you that the Committee on Admissions has admitted you to the Class of 2011 under the Early Action program. Please accept my personal congratulations for your outstanding achievements.

In recent years, nearly twenty-three thousand students have applied for the sixteen hundred and seventy-five places in the freshman class. Faced with many more talented and highly qualified candidates than it has room to admit, the Admissions Committee has taken great care to choose individuals who present extraordinary academic, extracurricular and personal strengths. In making each admission decision, the Committee keeps in mind that the excellence of Harvard College depends most of all on the talent and promise of the people assembled here.

You got your first college acceptance letter.

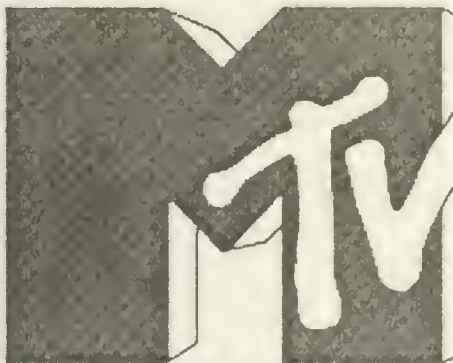

We had heat... oh wait, nevermind.

Damir drove his car on the railroad tracks.

Jon Needham ribbon danced at Mr. Melrose.

MTV Made came to MHS.

You went to your first high school dance.

We weren't breathalized before a school event.

That lady took over for Ms. P.

We got evacuated and no one in Melrose would take us in.

We had windows... oh wait, nevermind.

You met your best friend.

We Thank You...

Dr. Daniel Burke

7 1/2 years

The first day of high school you told us these four years would fly by, but none of us realized how quickly this would come. Now, we will walk into the future knowing more than we did before because of you. We would like to thank you for preparing us for the future and giving us the tools we need for success. We wish you the best as you begin the next chapter of your life.

Without you Melrose High School would not be the same, and neither would we. You have watched us grow year after year, supporting each club, sport and organization. You have guided us through our high school years with great leadership. From speaking at a school event to cheering on a sports team, your time and support has made us feel as though Melrose High School is not just our school, but our home as well.

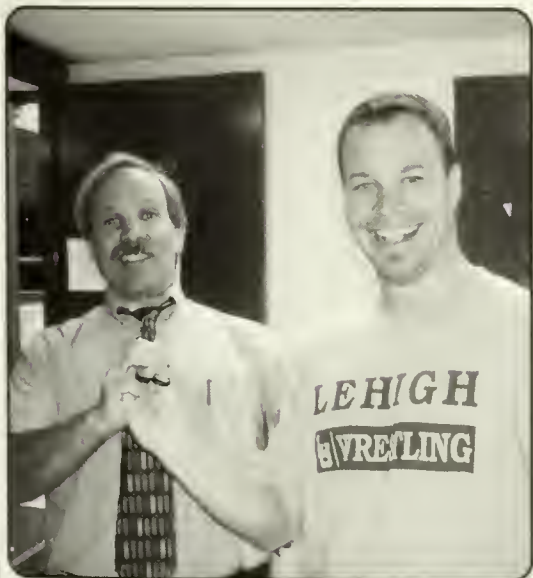

We Will Remember You...

Mrs. Una Dawson

To: Angela

Years ago way back in time,
The day God sweetly gave me to you.
I received a precious gift indeed
That blessed me many years through.

Yet years seem to pass so rapidly
For it seems as if only yesterday
Your tiny frame, was in my arms
Yet see how you've grown today.

As you journey onwards through life
I wish only the best for you
Your life be filled with joy and peace
And countless dreams come true.

Today you may be grown up
But in my heart, you will always be
My tiny sweet angel
That one God gave to me.

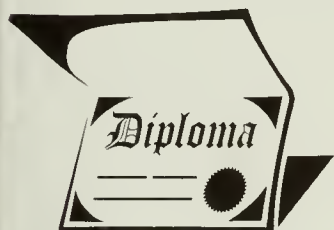

The very warmest of Gods blessings
To guide your footsteps every day.
My love and support to comfort you
Each sunrise to sunset, all along life's way.

Love, Mommy

Keep smiling Steve-Your future is bright!
 Congratulations with love,
